Unnecessary Misery.
Probably as soon misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body, and it is difficult to cure, for the reason no one likes to take the medicines usually prescribed. HAMBURG'S RIGOR was prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found pleasant to the taste of women and children. 25 cents. At all drug stores. J. J. Mack & Co., proprietors, S. F.

Is you Would enjoy your dinner and are prevented by Dyspepsia, use Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. They are a positive cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Flatulence and Constipation. We guarantee them. 25 and 50 cents.

Pinniger is agent for these celebrated "Abietine Remedies" and he offers to return your money if they do not give satisfaction. In buying, be sure the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer is on each, as none are genuine without it.

Old And reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon. Acker's Blood Purifier has been prescribed for years for all impurities of the Blood. In every form of Scrofulous, Syphilitic or Mercurial Diseases it is invaluable. For Rheumatism, has no equal.

An Aid to Bone Healing.
Edward Shepherd, of Berkeley, Ill. says: "Having received as much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I must have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold 15 cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25 cents per box by S. J. Hodgkinson & Co.

The reason Why Acker's Blood Purifier is warranted, is because it is the best Blood Preparation known. It will positively cure all Blood Diseases, purifies the whole system, and thoroughly builds up the constitution. Remember, we guarantee it.

Price of Ignorance.
"Hounds" in Pueblo, Colo., Live Stock Review.
Away back in the dark ages of our republic's existence there sprang up a party political that was known as the "know-nothing clan." To-day in Colorado we are constantly meeting the lineal descendants of the know-nothing tribe. In stockraising especially is their name legion. No one need ever mistake them for they are always on the outlook for a ten-strike and have unbending faith in luck. Somehow they always get the bag end of all the ill-luck in their section. Their horses are literally "raw-hides and rattle bones," are always getting mired or drowned, chilled or frozen, and escaping all other ills they get foundering in the ill-kept alfalfa patch. The stock are also prone to get over-heated in a short drive, get loosed, larkspurred, alkalied or Texas fevered, have broken legs, horns or backs, pulled down necks and horrible, unheard of diseases. Somehow their stock never gets fat, and yet they will break into a neighbor's oat patch and eat up $50 worth of grain in 50 minutes. The know-nothing man strings three barb wires along in the atmosphere, hangs a few posts on the wires, and calls it a fence. Then when the only decent animal he has tangles itself up with his alleged fence and commits suicide, he finds the English language too limited to express his feelings.

He never takes a paper, for whatever else he doesn't know he is a firm believer in economy, and so he buys the remains of an old wagon, that came to the country in the Mayflower, and that falls to pieces three times a week and costs $10 a month rent to keep it in repair. His well goes dry regularly six months every year, and his corral is composed of twelve poles, six slabs and 5,000 knots and jagged spears warranted to kill or maim any creature inside within ten minutes.

The most constant complaint of the ignorant man is that his neighbors never have his ill luck and that Providence seems to have singled him out as a proper object upon which to visit mysterious dispensations and empty the vials of wrath.

When the last of his family is dead and men learn that proportionate to the amount of brains and thought they put into stock-raising will be their success, then will the cattle business be a veritable treasure vault to its workers. Men's brains are given him to be used and unless he does use these articles he will find himself way behind in the race, however much he may slave. There is a handle to everything by which with comparative little labor the mountain may be overcome, but who shall do battle against the mountain of ignorance that man raises in his own mind.

It is costing the cattle business an immense sum each year to pay for the ignorance of thousands engaged in it, but the cattle industry is not alone in the heavy drain; the people of the whole State, and incidentally of the whole United States, feel the effects of this costly ignorance. It wouldn't be a bad idea for the men that delight in being called cattle kings to prove their right to the name of prince by awakening their industry from the ignorant sleep in which it has plunged to a glorious resurrection and the life and light of a new, clear knowledge.

During the nine months ending with September, 1884, Great Britain imported 349,713 cattle. In the same period of 1885 they decreased to 309,795 head. The receipts in the nine months of 1886 numbered 263,670; while the past part of the present year brought down the number to 233,895.

Some of the rage papers report that, owing to the great mortality among cattle last Winter, wolves were attracted in large numbers, and that their presence during the past season has been a greater annoyance than for some years. In some places the wolves are causing considerable losses.

There are 3,000 breeders of Holstein-Friesian cattle in the United States, with, if a current statement is correct, only two registered animals to each breeder. This must be an error, as it would give to the greater part of these men only one animal each.

The Colorado brand-book contains the names of 7,300 Colorado owners of cattle.

Give Them a Chance!
That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Rosebush's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon it.

Saved His Life.
D. J. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with phthisis, also diabetes; the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from the first bottle, and after taking six bottles, was entirely cured, and had gained in flesh 15 pounds. Says he positively believes the only remedy that does positively cure all throat and lung diseases, coughs, colds, asthma and bronchitis. Trial bottle free at S. J. Hodgkinson & Co.'s drug store, large bottles $1.

Greatly Excited.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1887

CALIFORNIA is blessed with a general rainfall. In San Francisco Monday morning the moderate temperature and scattered clouds, together with a warm southern wind, indicated that the long-looked-for rain was near at hand. As early as 9 o'clock light drops of rain commenced to fall and in the course of another hour the rainfall increased to a steady downpour. The cold weather, such as has been experienced in this city for the past ten days, is usually regarded as the precursor of rain, and with customary regularity the sign did not fail. The present storm was announced on Sunday evening by the Signal Service in a telegram from Olympia, Washington Territory. During the night the storm traveled southward and at 8 o'clock Monday morning had reached Northern California. Dispatches from Shasta, Redding and elsewhere at that hour announced a heavy fall of rain. Throughout Monday the storm was mainly devoted to the coast region, but that night rain was falling in many of the central interior counties, and yesterday morning the indications were that it would be general throughout the State. Judging by the weather in Reno to-day the rains there continue. Plenty of rain in California means lots of snow in the Sierras.

A PROFESSOR who hails from a Southern State announces in a New York paper that he will deliver on a certain evening a lecture in that city on "Sheel." A reporter approached him and asked what he knew of the unknown region. In reply he said: "I have been in hades. I was taken there while in a trance, and I haven't completely got over it yet. In my lecture I will tell how to get into Sheol, and to those who buy reserved seats I will explain the more important matter of how to get out again. I shall completely reverse the theory of the world's origin, and will incidentally make Bob Ingersoll look sick. I will deal science and modern theology a blow from which they will with difficulty recover. I will tell how deep, and how wide, and how hot it is in Sheol. My estimates are obtained by mathematical circumnavigation—that's the expression; mathematical circumnavigation—and they show that Sheol is exactly fifty-two miles below the surface of the earth."

JOHANN MOST was found guilty in New York City last evening of uttering language in public calculated to incite a riot, and Monday next was fixed as a day on which to hear argument on the motion for a new trial. Most is an out-and-out anarchist, and deserves no sympathy from the typical American. According to his own testimony he was imprisoned for treason in Austria in 1869, and again in 1870. He was imprisoned in Germany in 1872 for calling the Emperor a slaughterer, and sentenced again for a speech made in Berlin in 1881. He was sentenced in England to 18 months' imprisonment for applauding the killing of the Czar. He came to America because it was a country of free speech. He evidently draws no line between free speech and the right to incite a riot.

In the local columns of this issue will be found the outline of an unsectarian organization that is proposed to be established in Reno for moral and intellectual good. Young men, and older ones too, are frequently at a loss to know how to while away a spare hour. By organizing the proposed association and giving it sufficient financial aid the problem will be solved. Such institutions are very successfully conducted in other towns, and they have proven to be of incalculable good. Now that the movement is started, give it your hearty support.

THE leading politicians of Great Britain are said to favor the arbitration movement urged by the delegation which recently visited the United States. Under present conditions there is no power behind an arbitration to enforce it. If the "Parliament of Nations" at some future time becomes a reality, instead of a poet's dream, a High Court of the Powers might exercise the might as well as the right to execute its decisions. The triple alliance of Germany, Austria and Italy may be deemed a step in that direction since the preservation of peace is its ostensible purpose.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A Gigantic Scheme on Foot in Ohio.

A FAVORABLE INDICATION.

Death of Editor Smith this Morning.

GOBBLING ALL IN SIGHT.

The Dr. Powers Murder Case Revived.

(PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE)

The Nicaragua Canal Scheme.

New York, Nov. 30.—Early this morning the surveying party which is under the direction of the Nicaragua Canal Construction Company, and which will make the final surveys, boarded the steamer Hondo at her dock. The Hondo sailed at noon, and was accompanied down the bay by the Sam Swan, upon which were the general officers of the company, its directors and a large party of guests. The Hondo is to take in a force of 80 native laborers at Port Antonio and Jamaica, and will reach Greyton about December 9th, when the force of laborers will be augmented. The survey will not, it is expected, be completed until in April or May.

The Bowers Murder Case Revived.

HOLLISTER, Cal., Nov. 30.—The jury in the case of Andrew Irwin, charged with killing Dr. A. W. Powers, rendered a verdict of murder in the second degree this morning. Dr. Powers, an old resident of Bear Valley, was killed two years ago and John F. Frewett and John Irwin were charged with the crime. The body was afterwards hung from a tree by a number of men who were said to have conspired to take Powers' life or drive him from the country. Frewett was tried and the jury disagreed.

Interesting Political Gossip.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 29.—The Sun has a special from Washington in which Senator Gorman states positively that the tariff reform bill will be passed by the incoming Congress, which will cut off certain customs duties and provide for a reduction of the internal revenue tax. He advises Carlisle to decline the Speakership and take the Chairmanship of the Committee on Ways and Means as leader of the Democratic forces on the floor. Crisp, of Georgia, is recommended for the speakership.

A Big Scheme.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—A special from Toledo says that the Standard Oil Company has a gigantic scheme on foot to construct a pipe line from Chicago to New York. The line will cost about $5,000,000, and will connect with Ohio and Pennsylvania fields. The step is made necessary owing to the increase in railroad rates consequent upon the carrying out of the effect of the Interstate Commerce law.

Rate of Wages Decided On.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 30.—The National Association of Flint Glass Workers, which has been in session here for two days, adjourned this afternoon after passing a scale of wages. The scale will be presented to the workmen on January 2d, and if it is not accepted the factories throughout the country will close down.

Remored Railroad Change.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 30.—An evening paper asserts that it has responsible authority for the statement that movements are in progress which, in two weeks, will result in placing Henry S. Ives & Co. in control of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroads. The assertion is freely made that Ives has found substantial backers, and is able to become aggressive.

Chicago in Luck.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Agents of prominent French and English ship builders are negotiating with the principal iron works here with the object of establishing in this city extensive naval yards, similar to those of Armstrong in Italy. It is stated that Spain will consent to give contracts to the projectors to build men-of-war.

Death of Editor Smith.

REDWOOD CITY, Cal., Nov. 30.—Editor Smith died at 7 A. M. He was conscious until death. A post-mortem examination will be held to-morrow and the interment will take place on Friday. The funeral will be under the auspices of the Native Sons of the Golden West. Dr. Powell has been charged with murder.

A Favorable Indication.

BERLIN, Nov. 30.—Dr. Telschow, the court dentist, has been summoned to San Remo to operate on the Crown Prince's teeth. A favorable conclusion is drawn from the circumstance, as the operation would have been postponed, it is thought, had the Prince's condition not have been improved.

Gobbling all in Sight.

New York, Nov. 30.—The National Park Bank has secured several more attachments against the property of the insolvent firm of H. Webster & Co., wholesale liquor dealers, upon claims aggregating $33,000 due on notes and drafts endorsed by the firm and unpaid.

A SAD SUICIDE.

Particulars of the Tragedy at Elko Sunday Night.

The Elko Independent of Monday gives the following particulars of the suicide there Monday evening: Many of our citizens will remember an old man who for several days past has been wandering about town, walking with a limp, one leg apparently being shorter than the other, and assisting himself with a cane. He arrived here on the 19th instant, registered at the Depot Hotel as "J. G. Irwin, Aurora," and stayed there one night, since which time it is not known where he stayed. This afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock he walked down the railroad track a few rods below the Depot Hotel to where there is a pile of railroad iron, upon which he sat down, placed a revolver to his head just above the right ear, sent a bullet into his brain, fell back and expired apparently without a struggle, the pistol falling at his feet.

Coroner Morgan being informed of the tragedy immediately repaired to the spot, summoned a jury, which, after due inquiry, returned a verdict that deceased was named John G. Irwin, of Aurora, Nevada; that his age was about 60 years, and that he came to his death by a pistol shot fired by his own hand. On his person was found a small memorandum, on one page of which was the following: "Please write to John G. Booker, Aurora, Nevada. John G. Irwin, of Aurora, Nevada, is my name." On the next page was found the following: "Reason why I do this is I am dead broke and got no friends. It is my own fault. I will not ask for help. John G. Irwin, Aurora, Nev."

The old man was comfortably clad and bore no appearance of being a tramp. The remains were carried to the shop of the undertaker where they will be provided with a decent coffin and to-morrow they will be conveyed to the cemetery and interred at the expense of the county.

It is sad to think that one who has struggled through life until he has grown old and gray should find himself a stranger in a strange land and so entirely destitute of means or friends that he should determine to end a miserable life by suicide. Peace to his ashes.

A FREE ADVERTISEMENT.

A Big Chance to Get Rich on Little Capital.

THE GAZETTE is in receipt of an Eastern publication that contains a large advertisement headed "One Hundred Dollars a Month on an Investment of Only $335. This is Now Believed to be an Almost Absolute Certainty." The advertisement then reads: "The treasury stock of the Carson River Dredging Company will be sold at $3.35 per share until the 24th inst., when it will be advanced to $3.45. It is believed that 10 per cent. a month will be paid on this stock, and will commence soon after the large dredge commences work, about January 1, 1888." Then follows a lengthy basis the income is figured on.

"It will therefore be seen that at the above rate, for 24 hours (instead of 10 hours), allowing only 300 working days, the profit would amount to the enormous sum of $1,350,000, which would make a great deal more than 10 per cent. a month on the company's capital of $1,000,000.

"Within the past few days the undersigned has had some of the poorest material assayed by R. Longman's Sons, of this city, and its value was placed by them at $14.75 per ton, which is nearly three times the average as above estimated.

"The stock is full paid and non-assessable and no liability is attached to the stockholder.

"Send orders, with cashier's check, P. O. order or registered letter, until November 24th, at rate of $3.35 per share, to

"W. S. CHAMBERLIN, Agent, '115 Broadway, New York City."

These doctors have had large experience in the hospitals of London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Paris, Vienna, Berlin, St. Petersburg, New York, etc. To show the extent of their skill they offer a large premium if they fail to cure any case they undertake of consumption, catarrh, cancer, nervous debility, dyspepsia, and liver complaint, skin, ear and eye diseases, rheumatism and ague. Made Happy.

Leo Henkenger and Miss Anna Friedel, of Boca, came down on the morning train, and about 9 o'clock visited Judge Young's office, where the twain were made one. The parties being German, Henry Morris, the barber, played second best to Judge Young by interpreting the marriage ceremony.

Superior Judge L. D. Freer yesterday granted an injunction against the Spring Valley mine, or Cherokee, on the petition of Garrett Kappell, a farmer near Biggs, Cal. The mine has paid $50,000 in the last 40 days, and the injunction will throw over 100 men out of employment.

A PUBLIC GOOD.

An Unsectarian Organization Proposed That Will be of Incalculable Benefit to the Morals of the Town.

Pursuant to the call of Rev. Wm. Lucas, a number of our citizens met at the Trinity Episcopal Church last evening and considered means for the intellectual and moral training of our citizens, especially the young men.

The voluntary closing of business houses on Sunday and the consequent increased attendance at church was spiritedly discussed to some length, and then followed a discussion on the establishment of a reading room, public library and gymnasium. This last subject was warmly greeted and largely talked upon.

The general impression prevailing was that a Young Men's Association be organized, and that it secure rooms centrally located, commodious and nicely furnished. They should be attractive, and means should be provided for the entertainment of young men; that a library, supplemented by a list of first-class periodicals, local and general, should be provided, also a room for conversation, games, chess, checkers, cards and billiards and a gymnasium; that the organization should be made up of our representative business men, paying annual dues; that a Secretary should be elected and receive compensation for his services; that the rooms should be well lighted and heated and open from 9 a. m. to 9:30 p. m.; that all should be welcomed at all times to the free use of the library and periodicals, a small fee being asked for the use of the gymnasium and bath rooms; that it should be non-sectarian and free from moral sermonizing, but without the evil influences of the saloon and gambling places.

A few of our business and professional men were consulted and showed their appreciation of the movement by subscribing to the amount of $250 within a very short time. This was done simply to feel the pulse of our representative men, young and old. Not a single individual refused, and no man subscribed less than five dollars.

Everybody is aware of our great need of such an institution, and it is sincerely to be hoped that this simple initial movement may lead to the establishment of a free public library and a first-class resort for young men.

The use of the church was tendered for a future meeting, and was accepted. It was decided to hold the next meeting for further consideration of the matter on Tuesday, December 6, at 7 o'clock p. m. It must be understood that this is a public matter and for the public welfare, and that all are invited. Let us see a large turnout of our citizens. Show your spirit.

A Chance to Laugh.

"Natural Gas," the musical farce to be produced at the Nevada Theater on Saturday evening, for one night only, is one of those combinations of melody, dance and specialty which does not bear close analysis. Its plot is a secondary consideration and is merely introduced to keep the interest alive. It is all about a natural gas well discovered on a worthless piece of property, which makes a millionaire of Kitty Malone. Kitty, to use a slang term, has a bad case of swelled head, and changes her name to Malone. She gives musicals, law, tennis parties and all that sort of thing, and every male member of the cast becomes her suitor. A heavy villain is also introduced. This heavy villain is the most mercenary of the number, and when he hears that Kitty is not so wealthy after all he steps aside.

The plot gives the people of the company any number of opportunities to be funny, to sing, dance and introduce specialties. In short, as a musical farce-comedy, "Natural Gas" can be compared with the best, and is pronounced equal to "Adonis," the latest success in that line of theatrical entertainments.

The box sheet is now open at the Postoffice and reserved seats can be secured without extra charge.

Eclipses in 1898.

In the year 1898 there will occur five eclipses, three of the sun and two of the moon. A total eclipse of the sun will occur January 1st, partly visible at Washington as a partial eclipse, the sun setting eclipsed. The second eclipse, being a partial eclipse of the moon, will occur January 10th, visible at Washington and generally in Europe, Africa, North and South America and the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. The third will be an annular eclipse of the sun, June 27th, invisible at Washington. The fourth will be a partial eclipse of the moon, July 12th, invisible at Washington, but visible generally in Asia, Europe, Africa, Australia, the Atlantic ocean and the easterly portion of South America. The fifth will be a total eclipse of the sun, December 21st and 22d, invisible at Washington.

DISTRICT COURT.

Business Disposed of To-day—Cases Set for Trial in December.

The case of Clark & Jones vs. the Pyramid Lake Mining Company occupied the attention of the Court yesterday and a part of this forenoon. The plaintiffs were allowed to amend the complaint, and the defendant then asked and obtained an adjournment of the case to enable him to meet issues raised by amendment.

The case of George S. Smith vs. Mathew Calahan was called at 9 o'clock. It is a water suit and will probably occupy several days in trying it.

For the balance of the year the calendar has been arranged as follows:

December 5th—Lewis Dean vs. Fred Kolder; a suit in ejectment.

December 6th—John Irwin vs. Ellen Hawkins and Henry Rube; suit in ejectment.

December 7th—Joseph Frey, et al., vs. Wm. Thompson; the last of the suits growing out of the Reno Savings Bank matters.

December 8th—Thomas Hill vs. Patrick McCarrin; injunction suit.

December 16th—Reno Reduction Works vs. the Board of Commissioners for the Care of the Insane.

December 19th—Julia A. Blauvelt vs. D. W. O'Connor; a suit for damages alleged to have occurred from back-water from defendant's drain ditch.

December 21st—W. P. Vanmeter vs. Powell & Pollock; a water suit, involving injunction and damages. Of the above cases, that of Hill vs. McCarrin, Blauvelt vs. O'Connor, Vanmeter vs. Powell & Pollock, and the case of the Reno Reduction Works vs. the Board of Commissioners for the Care of the Insane are cases of considerable importance, involving the question of the use and resulting damages from the misuse of the waters of the Truckee river, and the cases are liable to consume several days each in trying. Besides these cases there are others at issue and could be called at any time, and may be reached sometime during the month. It will, therefore, be seen that Judge Bigelow will be kept pretty busy during the remainder of this year.

The Judge expects to make a short visit to Churchill county between the 12th and the 16th day of December.

Delinquent Taxes.

The delinquent taxes of Washoe county amount to $1,664 85. Of this amount the Central Pacific Railroad Company owes $1,284 85 on its unpatented lands that have been surveyed. Aside from this amount only $380 remains delinquent.

What Brandreth's Pills Do. In Brandreth's Pills the true life medicine has been found, composed as they are of numerous vegetables so combined that each multiplies the virtues of the rest. They never can do any harm. Their action is always the same, no matter how long or in what doses they are taken. They purge away the waste particles of the system. They recruit the animal vigor and arrest the progress of decay. They purify the blood. They stimulate the liver. They invigorate digestion. They open the pores. They make the bowels do the work of the kidneys, thus giving those organs an oft-needed rest. For Sale.

$30,000. Mrs. Howard offers her ranch for sale. The ranch is on the Virginia road, the most desirable of all the country roads in Nevada. It is located eight miles from Reno and in a beautiful section. The ranch consists of about 900 acres and a valuable water right. The ranch has long had the reputation of being one of the most productive of its size of all the ranches in the Truckee Meadows. This year it has produced 800 tons of hay, pasture for 200 head of stock, vegetables and other products in value about $8,000. The expenses of a few hundred dollars the ranch could be made to be even more productive than it is at present. The soil is admirably adapted to the raising of alfalfa, stock and vegetables. It has an excellent house, barn and other buildings, a good orchard and other improvements. Price, $30,000; 1/2 cash and the remainder in five equal annual installments. Interest at 5 per cent. per annum.

$13,650. A Santa's ranch located about five miles south of Reno. The ranch consists of 450 acres, which will be sold at $30 per acre, or for $13,650 and on easy terms of payment. There is on the place a good house of eight rooms, two barns and other buildings. The place has plenty of fine irrigating water and as many as fifty springs of excellent drinking water. The ranch yielded this year 300 tons of hay, and pasture valued at not less than $1500. The total valuation of this year's yield is not less than $3,500, and some one year's yield has amounted to as much as $5,000. As the ranch consists chiefly of pasture and meadow land, the expense of running the place is exceedingly small. The ranch is especially desirable as a stock range and for this purpose would yield a handsome profit on the amount invested.

THE BIGGS & FARIS RANCH.

One of the Finest Bodies of Land in California.

THIS PROPERTY CONSISTS OF 1,937 ACRES OF LAND SITUATED IN BUTTE County, Cal., 7 1/2 miles north of Sacramento. The land lies one and a half miles from Feather River, one of the largest rivers in California, and runs thence westerly for a mile to two and a half miles, on the end of the land lies one and a half miles to the town of Biggs; the central part lies within three miles of the San Joaquin River. The land is well watered by the California and Oregon Railroad, the through line from San Francisco to Portland, Oregon.

The county road from Gridley to Oroville passes through the land. It is an exceedingly rich alluvial soil, capable of a very high state of cultivation. It can be irrigated from the Feather River, although irrigation is not necessary, as crops without irrigation have been raised successfully for twenty-five years. There are 200 acres of low hill land, which is most excellent soil for vines. The land is well timbered with huge white oaks, one oak in particular measuring thirty-six feet in circumference four feet from the ground.

The wood alone is very valuable, it being estimated that if cut into cordwood it could be readily sold for the total sum of $40,000.

The land is cultivated and produces thirty-five bushels of wheat, or sixteen sacks, to the acre, and fifty bushels of barley. It will raise without irrigation eight tons of alfalfa to the acre. The land is within the citrus belt, and all kinds of citrus and deciduous fruits do well.

The total yield this year from this place in grains, fruit and pasture has been about $45,000. The owners have realized from rents alone $18,000 this year.

It lies well for cutting up into small tracts. It can be cut into 50-acre tracts, which will sell readily at $100 per acre. If colonized and cut into smaller tracts we believe it could be sold for double that amount.

Title perfect—no liens, no mortgages, no taxes. This property is for sale at $15,000, one-third cash, balance one year and two years at 5 per cent.

Similar land in this vicinity is rated at $100 per acre.

How Guncotton is Made.

It is not generally known that there is but one place in the United States where guncotton is manufactured, but such is the case. This is at the torpedo station in Newport Harbor. In the manufacture of guncotton the best cotton waste and the strongest and purest nitric and sulphuric acids are used for the explosive. The cotton waste after it has been hand-picked for the purpose of removing the dirt and grit, is placed in boiling tanks, where it is allowed to remain for four hours. It is afterward subjected to a thorough washing and is reboiled. The operation removes all oily matter and leaves the cotton harsh and stiff. It is then dried in the rooms heated with the waste air from a drying box. After undergoing this treatment the cotton rolls up into snarls and bunches, and in order that the acid may have a freer access to it is passed through a shredder and converted into a fluffy state. It is afterward exposed in an airtight box for 24 hours to a temperature of 200 degrees, which practically deprives it of all moisture. From the airtight box it is removed to the dipping room, where there are iron troughs filled with one part nitric acid and two parts of sulphuric acid. Into these troughs the cotton is placed, one bundle at a time, and allowed to remain about ten minutes, long enough for it to be thoroughly soaked with the acid. The charges, therefore, are taken one by one and placed in an acid wringer and plunged into a large tub which is kept filled with running water, in which a large wheel is rapidly turned in order to subject the cotton to a thorough washing. This latter process is continued until the acid is perceptible to the taste. It is then subjected to a still further washing and boiling in an alkaline mixture, this being necessary to remove every trace of acid. The cotton is now in long shreds and balls, which can be used or stored without danger, the process of conversion and cleaning being completed, but for military use it must be put into a more compact form. For this purpose the guncotton in charges of 300 pounds is thrown into a pulping tub, where, mixed with water, it is ground by steel cutters into a fine pulp. The grinding and breaking up of the cotton in the pulping tub is done by the use of the mangle, which under a moderate pressure, press the water from the pulp and trim out cylinders of cotton about eight inches high and three and a half inches in diameter. These cylinders are then placed under a hydraulic press and exposed to a pressure of about 1,700 pounds to the square inch or about eight tons on each. The cylinders are pressed into hard disks or disks, some two inches high and three and a half inches in diameter, with a specific gravity a little greater than water. They are packed in boxes of fifty pounds each and kept in magazines for general use. Guncotton is, from its great explosive power and the conditions of safety attached to its storage, superior to any other known explosive for naval warfare.

Great Men and Gastronomy.

Dr. Fordyce, the distinguished English surgeon, ate but one meal a day.

Dr. Parr confessed his love for hot boiled lobsters with a profusion of shrimp sauce.

Pope says:

One loves the pheasant's wing and one the turkey.

The turkey, the learned rooster and the hen.

Dryden said that a chine of honest bacon pleased his appetite more than all the marrow puddings.

Sir Isaac Newton, when writing his "Principia," lived on a scanty allowance of bread and water and a vegetable diet.

Dr. Johnson was partial to new honey and clotted cream, and all his lifetime had a voracious attachment for a leg of mutton.

Dr. Paley, having been out fishing for a whole day, was asked on his return if he had met with good sport.

"Oh, yes," he answered, "I have caught no fish, but I have made a sermon."

Ben Brummel, speaking of a man and wishing to convey his maximum of contemptuous feeling about him, said: "He is a fellow, now, that would send his plate up twice for soup."

Fry's of Charles II's reign, having company at breakfast, mentions: "I had for them a barrel of oysters, a dish of neats' tongues and a dish of anchovies, with wines of all sorts and ale."

Pope, who was an epicure, would live in bed for days at a time, broiled unless he were told that there were stewed lamprays for dinner, when he rose instantly and came down to the table.

Franklin at one time contemplated practicing abstinence from animal food, but having seen a cod opened, which contained some small fish, said to himself: "If you eat one another I see no reason why we may not eat you." He accordingly dined on the cod with no small degree of pleasure.

"Now look here, John Grap," said Mrs. Grap, a few days ago, "you needn't be bringin' home any more of them expensive books what you said was bound in Turkey. I reckon that books bound in this country is plenty good enough for you and me."
